TOWN AND DISTRICT NEWS

Last Saturday morning was the coldest of the winter, when the thermometer registered 41 below. The past week has continued cold and travelling has been anything but pleasant.

Mrs. G. H. Bartley and daughter, arrived home from Calgary last Wednesday evening.

Tom Tate has been going around with his hand in a sling for the past few days. A growth on the right hand was operated on by Dr. Moyer.

W. MacKirdy has been on the sick list during the past week.

The suffragettes in London, England, are planning more trouble. The new scheme is to annoy pleasure seekers on every occasion. They will start a campaign of sympathetic disturbance in theaters, restaurants and moving picture houses.

Onr.—The death occurred in Edmonton, Alta., last Sunday, of W. L. MacDonald, aged 31 years, who had been a resident of Mirror for the past two years. The late Mr. MacDonald was employed with the G. T. F. for the last ten years, and was at one time chief clerk to General Superintendent Brewer at Winnipeg. Owing to ill health he was forced to resign about four years ago, and since then held different positions.

with the company, and at the time of his death was road master's clerk at Mirror. Last Friday he was taken to the Isolation hospital, Edmonton, with an attack of erysipelas, and that coupled with the dread disease (tuberculosis) from which he had been suffering, proved too much. The deceased was born in Eastern Canada, and is survived by a father, who lives at Earl Grey, Sask., and a brother residing in Colorado. Interment was made in the Edmonton cemetery. He was extremely popular with his fellow employees, who, with his many acquaintances in Mirror, will regret his sudden demise.

Mrs. A. Niven, of Calgary, Alta., is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. G. H. Bartley.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. Y. Clarke, Lamerton, on Monday, Jan. 20th. The baby only lived a few hours. The sympathy of the community will be extended to the Clarke family over their loss.

T. G. Cook, of Wainwright, Alta., was in town on business for a day or two this week.

Hockey match next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mirror vs. Bashaw.

Obituary

The following from the World-Herald, Omaha, Neb., has reference to the beloved wife of C. R. Brewster, who resides near Mirror: Mrs. Mary A. Brewster died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Joseph Archibold, 1618 North Twenty-fifth street, Sunday evening after a long illness. She was 35 years of age, and is survived, besides her mother, by her husband and three children, two brothers, Allan and Joseph, and a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Archibold. She was the daughter of the late Joseph Archibold. Mrs. Brewster was born and raised in Omaha, but left here about nine years ago for Alberta, Canada. The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her mother. Interment will be private at Forest Lawn cemetery. The family request that no flowers be sent.

The heartfelt sympathy of everyone will be extended to Mr. Brewster and his children in their sad bereavement.

S. BUFFALO LAKE

R. E. Kerr has been busy delivering barley to W. F. Puffer's farm across the lake. The intense cold and roads with no solid bottom made it tough hauling for him.

We no sooner get a nice fall of snow and everything in shape to round up a few coyotes, and lo, Jack Frost begins to throw on a few extra degrees, and the coyotes can roam undisturbed. No fun hunting coyotes with Jack Frost hunting you.

Our election tangle is yet unsolved. The latest from the government informs us that it would have to be settled by the courts. We understand that Mr. Baker, supported by a large majority of the ratepayers has placed the matter in court, so we hope for a verdict for fair play and a fresh election at an early date.

MIRROR 5; BASHAW 2

The Mirror seven took the measure of the Bashaw hockey team on their own ice yesterday (Thursday) afternoon, to the tune of 5 to 2. The game was played in three sections of twenty minutes each, and play didn't lag for a minute. It was one of the fastest and cleanest games ever played in Bashaw, according to the oldest resident, and they ought to know. Mirror undoubtedly had the best of the argument in every department, although Bashaw was game to the core, and were working their heads off all the time to even up the tally. Mirror notched the initial goal in the first period and again in the second, when they bulged the net for 2 tallies, the score board reading 3 to 0. In the third stanza Bashaw went in the game with a win-or-die-in-the-attempt-spirit and succeeded in getting the rubber disc by the Mirror goal custodian for two counts; Mirror performing likewise at the opposite end of the arena. Not one player was penalized, and Referee Loomis had the game well in hand, although there were several times when he allowed off side passes to get away. It was the first game of the season for Mirror, and the first game of their life for three of the players.

Suggett received a nasty cut

A bunch of leather lunged Mirror rooters with ear splitting shouts, cheered their favorites on to victory (C. F.).

Bashaw plays in Mirror next

BUSY SESSION OF U. F. A.

Lethbridge, Jan. 24.—The sixth annual convention of the United Farmers came to its close last night. In its final hours it passed a resolution commending the C. P. R. company for the expeditious manner in which the grain crop was handled during the season just closed, and at the same time took up the fight for the farmers against the C. P. R. department of natural resources with regard to the reclassification of certain lands in the western section of the irrigation block. The association will endeavor to have the government classification changed.

Directors were then chosen by Dominion constituency electing their own directors. The proceedings were delayed somewhat by the caucus of the delegates of the Medicine Hat riding. The scrutineers discovered that there were about 40 more ballots cast than the delegates in the caucus, and the result was declared void, amid some heat. On the second ballot, W. B. Trego was chosen.

Other constituencies chose the following directors:—Victoria, P. H. Austin; Edmonton, F. E. Clare, of North Edmonton; Strathcona, W. G. Vickery; Red Deer, D. Buckingham; Calgary, H. W. Wood; Magrath, J. A. Quinsey.

One lone delegate out of the 400 present voted against a resolution demanding that the Dominion government turn the natural resources over to the provinces. The vote in the affirmative was enthusiastic.

Another official position was created before the session ended. It will be designated chief engineer, and the appointed will have charge of the comprehensive plan of expansion which the new directors contemplate inaugurating. The plan contemplates the holding of district conventions in the various constituencies, in addition to the annual provincial convention and a provincial wide canvas for new members.

A mass of resolutions were presented to the convention during the afternoon and to expedite their consideration, speeches were limited to three minutes each and many resolutions were tabled just before adjournment at 7 o'clock. In nearly every instance the resolutions went to the directors for action. Among the more important ones were resolutions advocating the following:

Relief of pre-emptors located by dry lands near the Montana boundary, and the request that the government remit their fees; the dissemination of literature that will tell the true story of the Grain Growers Grain company and its close affiliation with the All-Canada farmers; the collection of publication of accurate crop reports; laws requiring the testing of cattle for tuberculosis; amendments to the direct legislation act; legislation which would bring about cheaper money for the farmers.

A deep waterway from Montreal to the head of the great lakes, built jointly by the governments of the Dominion and the United States, is the project which will soon have the attention of the authorities of the two nations. Negotiations will shortly be begun through the international joint commission which has jurisdiction over the boundary waters of the two countries.

ALBERTA LEGISLATION

RURAL MUNICIPALITY ACT

(1) Any Territorial Unit may be established into a Rural Municipality on the petition to the Minister of resident electors instead of on a vote as formerly.

(2) Any incorporated Territorial Unit may be established in a Rural Municipality on petition to the Minister of six resident electors of each township, or where there are not less than ten resident electors on petition to the Minister of six resident electors of each township.

(3) Any Local Improvement District may be organized into a Rural Municipality on petition of 50 per cent. of number of votes cast at last election for councillors.

The divisions of the district will be continued, subject to change by By-law of Council and vote of electors.

(4) Any elector of a Rural Municipality, otherwise qualified, who resides in a village or town within or adjoining the municipality, who has actually cultivated 80 acres of the land within the municipality, owned by him during the current year shall be entitled to vote.

(5) The Rural Municipal Council has full power to pass by-law, subject to the vote of the resident electors, for restraining animals at large and impounding of same, and upon the passing of such by-laws the Stray Animal Ordinance, the Entire Animals Ordinance, the Herd Ordinance and the Pound District Ordinance cease to be operative within the municipality. The Fence Ordinance is, however, continued in force so that any by-law passed is subject to its provisions, the chief of which is section 2 which reads as follows:

"No action for damage caused by domestic animals shall be maintained, nor shall domestic animals be liable to be dis-trained for causing damage to property unless the same is surrounded by a lawful fence."

Sections 3, 4 and 5 of the Ordinance describe what shall be deemed a lawful fence. This leaves the council power to pass a by-law dealing with animals at large and trespassing, with the exception that they cannot enforce payment of damages under the by-law, unless the party claiming same had his land enclosed by a lawful fence. There is also in the Act dealing with crows, dangerous, brashly and mischievous animals.

(6) The Act has been amended to make clear the powers of the municipality to borrow, for the School District, on the credit of the school taxes levied by the council.

All school funds must be kept in a separate account in the bank, known as the School Tax Trust Fund.

Where a school district lies in more than one municipality the board must furnish the council with an estimate of the expenditure for the year and a cash valuation of all the assessable lands of the district in each municipality and the taxes shall be levied on this basis and collected by the municipalities in same manner as municipal taxes.

School boards will advise council of total amount required and council will fix rate.
The council also levies and collects Educational Tax on lands outside organized school districts.

The minimum tax for municipal purposes is $1.00 per lot or portion of land assessed and a similar amount for school purposes. In the past the minimum was $2.00 for each person assessed.

The business of a Hail Insurance District is now to be carried on by three commissioners, two elected by the Reeves of Municipalities interested and one appointed by the Government. Formerly the Board consisted of all the Reeves. The change renders the system more workable and less expensive.

The Hail Insurance levy has been changed from a levy on valuation to a levy of so much per acre. This change means less labor and work can be done more quickly.

THE VILLAGE ACT

(1) Provision made for additional audit at end of year to wind up whole year's business.

(2) Deputy Minister may countermand debentures so as to facilitate the issue when Minister is absent. Secretary-Treasurer must keep a debenture register.

(3) Minimum tax is now $1.00 per lot or portion of land assessed for municipal purposes and same for school purposes—formerly it was $2.00 for each person assessed.

(4) The Council has full power to pass a by-law subject to the vote of the resident electors, for restraining animals at large and the impounding of same and for the collection of damages. The by-law shall contain all the provisions necessary to deal with animals at large, as upon the passing of the by-law the Stray Animals Ordinance, the Entire Animals Ordinance, the Herd Ordinance, the Fence Ordinance and the Pound District Ordinance cease to be operative within the Village.

THE TOWN ACT

(1) No housing allowed, nor a sale of land, owned by the council, at less than assessed value of adjacent property.

(2) Deputy Minister given authority to sign by-law certificate and countermand debentures when Minister away.

(3) Twenty mills on the dollar limit done away with. This will tend to have assessment at actual cash value.

(4) Town given power to levy frontage tax for cost of watermain.

(5) Minimum municipal tax, $1.00, and school tax, $1.00 on each lot or portion of land assessed. Formerly $2.00 for each person assessed.

(6) For prompt payment of taxes 5 per cent. discount raised to 10 per cent.

(7) Provisions made for imprisonment for infraction of by-laws where fine imposed not paid.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENT ACT

(1) Provision for formation of new small Local Improvement Districts done away with.

Rural Municipalities better.

(2) Lands in large Local Improvement Districts (except those leased from Dominion (Government) will in future be assessed at 34 cents per acre instead of 14 cents as formerly.

AN EMINENT CITIZEN LOST

The Winnipeg Telegram pays the late Lord Strathcona, the following tribute editorially: "In the passing of Lord Strathcona, Canada and the Empire lose a great citizen. A man of broad and statesmanlike vision, Lord Strathcona, although we proudly claimed him as a Canadian, was in the truest sense an Imperial citizen. He held a place among the great of the Empire by right of distinction and service to his sovereign, and to the greatest of British dominions. It is not easy to over-estimate the services of Lord Strathcona to his adopted country. His contributions to the public life of Canada, beginning with the transference of the North-West territories from the Hudson Bay company to the Dominion, and continuing as member of the first executive and legislative councils of the North-West territories, and later as the first member for Winnipeg in the Legislative assembly of Manitoba, to his subsequent acceptance of a seat in the House of Commons, and then to the post of high commissioner for Canada is in itself a notable achievement. But those public services fail to take into account his share in the development of the Canadian Pacific railway, at a time when the country was tired of the undertaking, nor of his influence on the financial and industrial enterprises which profited by his rare judgment and unique ability. Scarcely any phase of Canadian life but is the better for Lord Strathcona's contributions to it. As a patron of the arts and sciences he was ever generous of his means. McGill university owes much to him. The splendid Royal Victoria hospital in Montreal stands too, as a memorial to his broad philanthropy. Possibly it will never be known the true extent of his benefactions. If his services to the Empire it is not necessary here to speak. His magnificent contribution of the Strathcona Horse at the critical time in the South African war, stands unique in the annals of British history. No other son of the Empire has ever surpassed the splendor of that service. His services as High Commissioner for Canada have been of incalculable value. Enjoying such intimate knowledge of the political history of the country, knowing as few men could have known the greatness of the country's resources and possibilities, and possessing the qualities of a diplomat, he served the country in such a manner that it will be most difficult to replace him. The splendid life story of Lord Strathcona is an inspiration that will influence the youth of the ages, for it is not given to every man of even great talents to impress his personality upon contemporaneous history as has this man of the Canadian west. He lived at a time when the great lone north land was throbbing with the red blood of strong men in the days when the pioneer spirit was virile and the necessity for man and action ever present. In these days the Canadian west was filling up with courage and brawn and muscle from remote parts of the world, from whence 'cowards never started and the weak fled on the way.' The ideals of this man are written in this sentence, attributed to the first commission in his declining years: "It is well in the battle of life to hold firmly to the idea that whatever any one man has done, another can also accomplish." What man has done man can do. That was his genius and commanding attributes supplied the material to overcome all difficulties. Lord Strathcona's name will be written high on the scroll of honor by the future historians of the Dominion."

It is estimated that the holdings of the late Lord Strathcona in Winnipeg will total over $2,000,000. In Silver River he held nearly 800 acres of very valuable property. He owned Fort Garry Court, at the corner of Main street and Broadway, a block on Broadway, and several other valuable properties, both in the city of Winnipeg and throughout Canada. His wealth is estimated at about $25,000,000.
